

I think the showing of Stolen Honor is a violation of equal opportunity for opposing sides to be heard. Both sides should be shown. The Sinclair group would not allow the reading of names of the fallen soldiers to be read because it was too political.

A pro Kerry show such as Going uprivershould be shown to make a balanced presentation. Please use your authority to make sure there is a fair representation of both sides.